

INT. JUNIOR JAZZ MEETING 2017

Attention young musicians and bands!

Do you play or sing in a band? Do you feel like performing at a Jazz festival? If so, take this opportunity! We are looking for bands to participate in the 14th annual Junior Jazz Meeting in Langnau, Switzerland. The band will perform on an open-air stage for about 45 minutes. The concerts are part of the «Langnau Jazz Nights» festival, which takes place from July 25th - 29th 2017.

The "Langnau Jazz Nights" LJM are more than just "another" jazz festival. Besides the nightly concerts with some of the best international musicians (2017 i.e. with Ambrose Akinmosire, Donny McCaslin, SAX SUMMIT featuring Dave Liebman, Joe Lovano, Greg Osby, Phil Markowitz, Cecil McBee, Billy Hart), the LJM offer a JAZZ WORKSHOP for adults under the direction of Greg Osby (sax) with Matt Brewer (b), Marquis Hill (tp), Liberty Ellman (guit) among others as well as the JUNIOR JAZZ WORKSHOP – and the INTERNATIONAL JUNIOR JAZZ MEETING.

This "festival within the festival" gives young aspiring artists the opportunity to meet fellow musicians as well as internationally acclaimed stars – a unique event in Europe.

Younger than 26 and addicted to jazz

Applicants should be no more than 25 years old and the music performed should have to do with jazz in some sort of way.

The festival offers accommodation and food as well as free tickets to all connected concerts.

Feedback by professional jazz musicians

After performing, the concert will be discussed in a feedback workshop with a teacher of the Jazz Workshop. There are possibilities to rehearse and have jam sessions. Applicants from abroad get a contribution to travel expenses.
